24. The contractor may, before the deadline for submission of bids, change or withdraw the bid.
25. Amendments must be submitted according to the same rules as the submitted bid, i.e., in a closed envelope appropriately labeled, marked CHANGE and submitted before the deadline for submission of bids.
26. Withdrawal of a bid from the proceeding shall be made by submitting a written notification (according to the same rules as making changes) with the word WITHDRAWAL written on the envelope.
27. The notice of bid withdrawal must be accompanied by a document authorizing the Contractor to act in legal transactions, and the notice must be signed by an authorized representative of the Contractor.
28. Any information constituting a business secret within the meaning of Article 11 (2) of the Act of April 16, 1993. on counteracting unfair competition (stating that a business secret is understood as technical, technological, organizational information of an enterprise or other information having economic value, which as a whole or in a particular juxtaposition and set of its elements is not generally known to persons normally dealing with this type of information or is not readily available to such persons, provided that the person authorized to use or dispose of the information has taken, with due diligence, actions to keep it confidential. The information (e.g., the information, the documents, etc.) that the Contractor reserves as a business secret should be submitted separately (in a separate file) with the simultaneous marking "Annex constituting a business secret".
29. The Contractor should make the relevant disclaimer on the bid form. Otherwise, the entire bid will be disclosed. The Contracting Authority recommends that the information reserved as a business secret be submitted by the Contractor in a separate inner envelope marked "business secret", or stapled (stapled) separately from the other, non-confidential elements of the bid and marked "business secret". The numbering of the pages of the "non-confidential part" of the offer should allow them to be attached to the appropriate place of the "non-confidential part" of the offer.

Attention:

The Contractor may not reserve information concerning the company name and addresses of contractors, as well as information concerning the price, contract completion date, guarantee period and payment terms contained in the bid and which do not constitute a business secret. If confidentiality of such information is reserved, the Contracting Authority reserves the right to reject the bid.

30. The Contractor may request the Contracting Authority to clarify the content of the Request for Quotation - Terms of Reference (ToR).

31. The request for proposals may be amended before the deadline for submission of tenders. The Procuring Entity shall inform in the request for proposals about the scope of the changes. The Procuring Entity shall extend the deadline for submission of tenders by the time necessary to introduce changes in tenders if it is necessary due to the scope of the changes.
32. The Contracting Authority will promptly respond in writing to the question posed, sending questions and answers to all participants in the proceedings, provided that the question is received by the Contracting Authority at least 6 days before the deadline for submission of tenders.
33. Questions should be submitted electronically to the email address specified in Section X, Item 4 of the Request.
34. The Contracting Authority allows Contractors to ask questions for clarification of the content of the Request for Proposal in English.
35. In justified cases, the Contracting Authority may amend the Request for Proposal before the deadline for submission of tenders.
36. The content of the provided response shall automatically become the content of the Request to the extent that it relates to it. In case of discrepancies between the content of the Request and the content of the provided answers, the content of the letter containing the subsequent statement of the Contracting Authority shall be accepted as binding. The Contracting Authority will extend the deadline for submission of tenders, taking into account the time necessary to introduce changes in tenders resulting from modifications to the contents of the Request for Proposal. The above shall apply only if the modification results in a change in the content of the Request for Proposal or causes the need for additional time for bid preparation. The person authorized to contact the Bidders is:

XIII. BID EVALUATION RULES

OFFER EVALUATION

1. Provisions on the conduct of explanations by the Contracting Authority during the examination and evaluation of tenders:
 - a. In the course of examining and evaluating tenders, the ordering party may request clarifications from contractors regarding the content of submitted tenders and submitted documents or statements. It is unacceptable for the ordering party and the contractor to negotiate regarding the submitted tender and to make any changes to its content.
 - b. The contracting authority may call on contractors to submit, supplement, correct or provide clarification of statements or documents within a specified period:
 - i. confirming the fulfilment of the requirements specified by the contracting authority in Chapter VIII of the request for quotation - (ToR),
 - ii. proxies,
 - iii. subjective evidence measures.
 - c. The contracting authority shall correct obvious clerical and obvious accounting errors in the bid, taking into account the accounting consequences of the corrections made, immediately notifying the contractor whose bid has been corrected.

- d. The ordering party shall correct in the bid other errors consisting in the inconsistency of the bid, not causing significant changes in the bid, immediately notifying the contractor whose bid has been corrected. The bid of the contractor who, within the prescribed period from the date of delivery of the notice, disputed the principles of correcting the error is subject to rejection.
 - e. If the offered price or cost appears to be abnormally low in relation to the subject matter of the contract, i.e. differs by more than 30% from the arithmetic mean of the prices of all valid offers not subject to rejection, or raises doubts in the ordering party as to the possibility of performing the subject matter of the contract in accordance with the requirements specified in the request for quotation or arising from separate regulations, the ordering party shall demand from the contractor to submit explanations, including submission of evidence for the calculation of the price or cost, within a specified period. The contracting authority shall evaluate these explanations in consultation with the contractor and may reject that bid only if the explanations submitted, together with evidence, do not justify the price or cost quoted in that bid.
 - f. The ordering party shall reject the bid of the contractor who has not provided explanations or if the evaluation of the explanations together with the submitted evidence confirms that the bid contains an abnormally low price in relation to the subject matter of the contract.
2. The Contracting Authority will exclude Contractors who fail to demonstrate compliance with the conditions for participation referred to in Section 6.2 of the Request.
 3. The Contracting Authority excludes the Contractor:
 - a. if he fails to meet the conditions for participation in the proceedings provided for in section 6.2 of the ToR
 - b. if the contracting authority can establish, on the basis of reliable indications, that the Contractor has entered into an agreement with other Contractors to distort competition
 - c. who has culpably violated his professional obligations in a serious way that undermines his integrity, in particular, when the Contractor, as a result of deliberate action or gross negligence, has failed to perform or improperly performed the contract, as the contracting authority is able to demonstrate by means of relevant evidence;
 - d. if there is a conflict of interest within the meaning of para. VII item 3 of the Request, which cannot be effectively eliminated other than by excluding the contractor;
 - e. who, for reasons attributable to him, to a significant degree or extent has failed to perform or has improperly performed or long-term improper performance of a material obligation under a previous public procurement contract or concession agreement, which led to termination or withdrawal from the contract, compensation, substitute performance or exercise of rights under the warranty for defects;
 - f. who, as a result of deliberate action or gross negligence, misled the contracting authority when presenting information that he is not subject to exclusion, meets the conditions for participation in the proceedings or the selection criteria, which could have a significant impact on the decisions taken by the contracting authority in the procurement procedure, or who concealed this information or is unable to provide the required subjective evidence;
 - g. who unlawfully influenced or attempted to influence the actions of the contracting authority or attempted to acquire or obtained confidential information that could give him an advantage in the procurement procedure;
 - h. who, as a result of recklessness or negligence, provided misleading information, which could have had a significant impact on decisions made by the contracting authority in the procurement procedure.
 4. The Contracting Authority will reject the bid of the Contractor that:
 - a. Its content does not correspond to the content of this Request for Proposal. (ToR)

- b. its submission constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of the provisions on combating unfair competition;
 - c. will not pay the required deposit
 - d. contains an abnormally low price in relation to the subject matter of the contract;
 - e. was submitted by a contractor excluded from participation in the procurement proceedings
 - f. contains errors in price calculation
 - g. The Contractor, within the prescribed period, challenged the correction of the mistake referred to in item. 13 item 1 letter d. of this Tor document.
5. The contracting authority will cancel the contract award procedure if:
- a. No non-rejectable bids were submitted,
 - b. there has been a significant change in circumstances that makes the conduct of the proceedings or the performance of the contract not in the public interest, which could not have been foreseen earlier,
 - c. the proceedings have an irremovable defect that prevents the conclusion of a non-cancellable public procurement contract.
6. Information on the result of the procedure or cancellation shall be announced in the same way as the request for proposals was publicized, i.e., using the website of the Contracting Authority. Information on the selection of the most advantageous tender shall include the name and surname or the name of the selected contractor, its registered office (city), points awarded in the tender evaluation criterion.

XIV. METHOD OF PRICE CALCULATION

1. The Contractor shall specify the total price in the Bid Form (Schedule No. 1 to the Request for Proposal of the Terms of Reference (ToR)).
2. Unit prices for individual assortment items included in the order should be given in the Bid Form (Schedule No. 1) Each unit price must be stated so as to cover all costs and risks of the Contractor related to the implementation of the scope to which it applies. The Contractor may not add the cost of performing a given activity to the cost of performing other activities. The total price resulting from the bid should be given in the item under the name Total price for the execution of the order, Bid Form (Schedule No. 1)
3. The bid price will be converted into Polish zlotys (PLN) by the Contracting Authority to two decimal places for bid comparison.
4. The calculated gross bid price will be used to compare the bids submitted and for settlement during the execution of the contract.
5. The rate of Value Added Tax (VAT) applicable in Poland will be included by the Contractor in the gross bid price.

XV. TERM OF BINDING THE BID

1. The contractor will be bound by the bid for a period of 120 days from the deadline for submission of bids, i.e.,
2. The Contracting Authority shall select the most advantageous offer within the bidding period specified in the Request for Proposal. (ToR)
3. In the event that the selection of the most advantageous bid does not take place before the expiry of the bidding period referred to in paragraph 15.1. of the Request for Proposal(ToR) the Contracting Authority shall, before the expiry of the bidding period, ask the contractors once to agree to extend this period by the period indicated by the Contracting Authority, not exceeding 60 days.
4. Extension of the bid validity period referred to in item 15.1. of the Request shall require the contractor to submit a written statement of consent to extend the bid validity period. Extension of the bid binding period referred to in item 15.1. of the Request shall be made along with the extension of the bid bond validity period or, if this is not possible, with the payment of a new bid bond for the extended bid binding period.

XVI. METHOD AND DATE OF SUBMISSION AND OPENING OF TENDERS

1. The bid must be submitted by OCTOBER 09, 2025 at 2:00 pm.
2. The deadline for submission of an offer is determined by the time of its effective submission to the BCT office in Gdynia, 60 Kwiatkowskiego Street.
3. The opening of the bids is open to the public and will take place on OCTOBER 09, 2025 at 2:10 p.m.
4. Timely submission of a bid is determined by the date of submission of the bid to the BCT office (the Contracting Authority notes that the date of postmark is not equivalent to submission of a bid)
5. Immediately after the opening of bids, information about:
 - 1) the names or forenames and offices or places of business or residence of contractors whose bids have been opened; 2) the prices or costs contained in the bids; 3) Delivery time ;4) Warranty periods

XVII. METHOD OF PRICE CALCULATION

1. The Contractor is obliged to provide in the Material and Price Form (Schedule No. 2 to the Request for Proposal - Specification of Important Order Terms (ToR)) the total price taking into account all elements related to the correct and timely execution of the order.
2. The Contractor is obliged to fill in all vacant items of the Material and Price Form.
3. In column 4, the Contractor shall enter unit net prices to two decimal places per set or unit.
4. The net value (column 6) of each item is calculated by multiplying column 4 by column 5.
5. The gross value (column 8) of each item is calculated by adding the value of VAT to the net value.
6. The bid price is the gross value stated on the Bid Form. The calculated price on the Material and Price Form must be transferred to the Bid Form. There must be no discrepancy between the price calculated from the Price Form and the price stated on the Bid Form. The bid price must be stated to 2 decimal places.
7. The Contracting Authority allows bids to be submitted with prices quoted in USD, with the proviso that for the purpose of bid comparison, the bid price quoted in a foreign currency, i.e. USD/EUR will be converted into Polish Zloty (PLN) according to the National Bank of Poland's (NBP) Average Exchange Rate Table as of the bid opening date (available on the NBP's official website: <http://www.nbp.pl/>). To avoid misunderstandings, bid prices in PLN will be used only to compare bids and award points to the bidder, while all settlements with the Contractor will be made in USD /EUR (depending on the currency from the BID Offer)
8. The rate of value-added tax (VAT) should be taken into account at the rate in effect on the date of submission of tenders. In Poland, the VAT rate is 23%.

XVIII. DESCRIPTION OF THE CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION OF TENDERS, TOGETHER WITH THE WEIGHTS OF THESE CRITERIA AND THE METHOD OF EVALUATION OF TENDERS

1. In selecting the most advantageous bid, the Contracting Authority will be guided by the following bid evaluation criteria:

- 1) Price (C) - criterion weight of 40 points;
- 2) Delivery time (D) - criterion weight of 20 points;
- 3) Warranty period (G) - criterion weight of 40 points;

2. Rules for evaluation of offers in the criterion Price (C) - weighting of 40 points.

$$C = \frac{\text{lowest gross price}^*}{\text{gross price of the evaluated offer}} \times 40$$

* out of all the non-rejectable bids submitted.

3. The basis for awarding points in the "price" criterion will be the gross bid price provided by the Contractor in the Bid Form.

4. Rules for evaluation of offers in the criterion Delivery time (D) - weighting of 20 points

The Contractor will receive 10 points for each 1 month reduction in terms,

5. Rules for evaluation of bids in the criterion Warranty period (G) - weighting of 40 points

The contractor will receive 10 points for each 6-month extension of minimum warranty terms.

The contracting authority requires equal extension of all the periods stipulated in this section for the extension of warranty periods the Contractor will receive a maximum of 40 points.

6. The points awarded to bids in each bid evaluation criteria will be calculated to two decimal places, in accordance with the rules of arithmetic.
7. The total score of the tested bid (L) will consist of the sum of points awarded under each of the given bid selection criteria - Price (C) plus Quality (J) plus Delivery Time (D) plus Warranty Time (G) and will be calculated according to the following formula:

$$L = C + D + G$$

Where :

L - number of points awarded to the tested offer

C - number of points obtained by the examined offer in the criterion "Price"

D - number of points obtained by the examined offer in the criterion "Delivery time"

G - number of points obtained by the examined offer in the criterion "Warranty Period"

8. In the course of examining and evaluating tenders, the Contracting Authority may demand explanations from the Contractor regarding the content of the tender submitted, including the price offered.

9. The contracting authority will award the contract to the Contractor whose bid is found to be the most advantageous.
10. The Contracting Authority, for the purpose of evaluating a bid, the selection of which would lead to the Contracting Authority's tax liability in accordance with the provisions on tax on goods and services, will add to the price presented therein the tax on goods and services that it would be obliged to settle in accordance with these provisions.

XIX. INFORMATION ON THE CONTENT OF THE CONCLUDED AGREEMENT AND THE POSSIBILITY TO CHANGE IT

1. The contracting authority shall enter into a contract, on a public procurement, with the Contractor whose bid is considered the most advantageous.
2. The Contracting Authority will enter into a contract with the Contractor under the terms and conditions specified in the attached model - Schedule No. 4.
3. The procurement contract shall be concluded in writing, as provided for in Article 78 of the Civil Code.
4. If the selected Contractor withdraws from the conclusion of the procurement contract, the contracting authority may conclude a contract with the Contractor who obtained the next highest number of points in the properly conducted procurement procedure
5. If a bid submitted by Bidders jointly applying for the contract is selected, the Contracting Authority reserves the right to demand a contract governing the cooperation of these Bidders before concluding a public procurement contract.
6. The selected Contractor, shall be obliged to conclude a public procurement contract under the terms and conditions set forth in the Framework Model Contract, attached as Schedule No. 4 to this Terms of Reference (ToR).
7. The Contracting Authority and the Contractor selected in the procurement procedure shall be obliged to cooperate in the execution of the public procurement contract for the proper performance of the contract.
8. The scope of the Contractor's performance under the contract shall be the same as his obligation contained in the bid.
9. It is not possible to make significant changes to the provisions of the contract in relation to the content of the offer on the basis of which the contractor was selected, unless:
 - a. were provided for in the form of clear, unambiguous contractual clauses,
 - b. changes relate to the implementation of additional services, services or works from the existing contractor, not covered by the basic contract, if they have become necessary and all the following conditions are met:
 - i. change of contractor cannot be made for economic or technical reasons, in particular concerning interchangeability or interoperability of equipment, services, or installations, ordered under the basic contract,
 - ii. change of contractor would cause significant inconvenience or a significant increase in costs for the contracting authority,
 - iii. the value of the changes does not exceed 50% of the value of the contract originally specified in the contract,
 - c. the amendment does not lead to a change in the general nature of the contract and the following conditions are met together:
 - i. the need to amend the contract is due to circumstances that the contracting authority, acting with due diligence, could not foresee,

- ii. the value of the changes does not exceed 50% of the value of the contract originally specified in the contract,
- d. the Contractor to whom the Contracting Authority has awarded the contract is to be replaced by a new Contractor as a result of succession, assuming the rights and obligations of the Contractor, as a result of acquisition, merger, division, transformation, bankruptcy, restructuring, inheritance or purchase of the existing Contractor or its enterprise, provided that the new Contractor meets the conditions for participation in the procedure and this does not involve other significant changes to the contract, and is not intended to avoid the application of the principle of competitiveness, or
- e. the change does not lead to a change in the general nature of the contract, and the total value of the changes is less than EUR 140,000 in the case of supplies and at the same time is less than 10% of the value of the contract originally specified in the contract in the case of service contracts.

XX. PERFORMANCE BOND REQUIREMENTS

1. The Contracting Authority will demand a performance bond (hereinafter "Security") to cover claims for non-performance or improper performance of the contract, including contractual penalties, as well as claims under the quality guarantee.
2. The security is set at 10% of the bid price.
3. The security may be provided at the option of the Contractor in one or more of the following forms:
 - a) cash;
 - b) bank guarantees or guarantees of a cooperative savings and loan association, except that the obligation of the bank is always a monetary obligation;
 - c) bank guarantees;
 - d) insurance guarantees;
 - e) Sureties provided by entities referred to in Art. 6b par. 5 item 2 of the Act of November 9, 2000 on the establishment of the Polish Agency for Enterprise Development.
4. If the security is provided in cash, the Contractor may agree to credit the amount of the deposit against the security.
5. The security paid in money shall be paid by the Contractor by transfer to the bank account indicated by the Contracting Authority. If the security was paid in money, the Contracting Authority shall keep it in an interest-bearing bank account. The Contracting Authority shall return the security contributed in cash with the interest resulting from the bank account agreement on which it was kept, less the cost of operating the account and bank commission for transferring the money to the Contractor's bank account.
6. The performance bond, in all forms provided for in Section 3 of the Request for Proposal, should secure claims arising from non-performance or improper performance of the contract in such a same manner, which means that the security provided in a form other than money cannot secure the Ordering Party's claims in a less favourable manner than if the security was provided in money. The performance bond in the form of a guarantee/surety should be irrevocable, unconditional, and payable at the first written request of the Contracting Authority. The Contracting Authority shall not allow the payment of amounts under the guarantee/surety to depend on the submission of any additional documents or satisfaction of any conditions, other than the Contracting Authority's statement that the requested amount is due for non-performance or improper performance of the contract.
7. The Employer shall return the security within 30 days from the date of signing of the final equipment acceptance protocol and recognition of the delivery by the Employer as duly completed.

XXI. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The provisions of the Public Procurement Law of September 11, 2019 do not apply in the present proceedings. Contractors are not entitled to appeal to the National Board of Appeals.
2. In the proceedings for the award of the subject contract, Contractors have the right to submit in writing to the Contracting Authority comments on the conduct of the proceedings in violation of the law, the terms of these specifications or violation of the principles of equal treatment of contractors, fair competition and transparency, within 3 days of becoming aware of them. The Contracting Authority shall immediately notify the other contractors of such comments. The Contracting Authority will consider the reported comments and will notify all contractors in writing of their consideration and the actions it is taking to rectify the deficiencies or not to consider them. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to rescind or modify the actions taken in the procedure to remove the identified deficiencies. The decision of the Contracting Authority on the recognition of comments is final and no appeal is available against it.
